

Our Beliefs

God

We believe there is only one God who is infinite, omnipotent, omnipresent and all powerful. It is God alone who is to be worshipped and praised. We believe in God the father, God the Son and God the Holy Spirit. (Isaiah 45:5a, Scots Confession)

Jesus Christ

We believe Jesus Christ is the eternal Son of God who willingly and sacrificially went to the cross to die for our sins. He was raised from the dead on the third day and is now seated at the right hand of the father and one day will return to judge all of mankind and receive his people to himself. (The Nicene Creed)

The Holy Spirit

We believe the Holy Spirit dwells within each believer of Jesus Christ and teaches us and leads us to live a life that glorifies God in all that we do. The power of the Holy Spirit is what leads people into a saving relationship with Jesus Christ and convicts us of our sin. (John 14:26)

The Bible

We believe the scriptures of the Old and New Testaments are the Holy inspired word of God, are infallible and useful for teaching, rebuking, correcting and training all people for righteousness.

All scripture witnesses to God's self-revelation of his glory to all people and is without any error as written by human writers with divine inspiration. (2 Timothy 3:16)

Sin

All people are born sinners and remain in that state of depravity and alienation from God. No amount of religion or good work can change our condition. We will only be justified and found not guilty through the grace that comes to us through the repentance of our sin and a personal relationship with Jesus Christ as our Lord and Savior. (Romans 3:22-26)

Salvation

Salvation comes to people through a personal relationship with Jesus Christ. Individuals must believe in their heart, He is the Son of God, raised from the dead on the third day and confess with their mouth that he is Lord. He is the way, the truth, and the life, and no one comes to the father except through Him. (Romans 10:9-10, John 14:6)

The Church

We believe the role of the church is to be a witness to God's glory through worship, prayer and service in our world. We are to take the truth of God's word in scripture and apply it to our lives and our world, to present the hope of the saving grace in Jesus Christ to the lost and broken hearted. (John 4:24)
